

LandLearn invites you to a teacher professional development workshop

Connecting to the land

A full day workshop at Edendale Farm providing hands-on curriculum linked resources and ideas exploring our connection to the land: through the food we eat and grow; as land managers; consumers and decision makers.

Highlights will include:

- ◆ Experiencing VELS linked teaching and learning activities that investigate where our food comes from
- ◆ Discovering how sustainable land management can be integrated into your classroom through curriculum-linked activities (Victorian Essential Learning Standards)
- ◆ Finding out how to undertake simple audits of your school grounds that contribute towards accreditation of the Biodiversity Module of the Australian Sustainable Schools Initiative Victoria (AuSSI Vic)
- ◆ Exploring factors affecting our food and purchasing choices
- ◆ An introduction to Creating Sustainable Futures - a creative thinking tool to explore sustainability and your connection to the land
- ◆ Networking with others who have are integrating these themes into classroom curriculum
- ◆ Finding out how LandLearn can help you in the future...

Aimed at The Standards levels 3, 4, 5 & 6 of Health and Physical Education, Humanities, Science, Communication and Thinking Processes but open to any interested teachers.
